Custom Album Covers Will Ship with Other Products

After you order your Custom Album Cover, please allow an extra 3-5 days of processing time for your order to ship. Therefore, if you have a custom product in your order, please choose your shipping option at checkout with that additional processing time in mind.

Themes and Artwork are Available to You in the Designer at No Additional Cost

- New themes for Custom Album Covers will launch frequently. Watch your Creative Memories Advisor and customer emails for announcements.
- You will notice each theme includes an expiration date next to its name. This is the date the theme will no longer be available. We will continue to add and remove themes to keep designs fresh over time. Themes will expire two times a year either on Dec. 31 or June 30. To view these expiration dates, you must choose the Custom Album Cover product and then click CUSTOMIZE to begin the creation process. After naming your project, you will be able to view all theme expiration dates.
- For each theme available, you will have the ability to add artwork for that theme within the Designer. You do not have to purchase the Digital Artwork separately. This includes artwork for designer papers, Fast2Fab™ designs, elements (stickers and embellishments) and mats for that collection. However, once the theme has expired, this artwork will no longer be available. You can purchase and upload Creative Memories Digital Artwork (and other artwork you own) into the Custom Album Covers Designer as a JPG or PNG.
- If you place an order for a Custom Album Cover, you will have two years from your purchase date to order that cover again (even if the theme has expired).
- Our Designer is not a photo-storage solution. Photos are meant to be uploaded for the creation of a product and we do not guarantee photo storage.

You Can Create Custom Album Covers in Your Own Software and Print Them with Creative Memories

- When using another program to design your cover, you will need a front cover, back cover and spine.
- Any pre-designed page that you upload needs to be a JPG or PNG file at 12.25" x 12.25" at 300 dpi.
- In Artisan, if you use the default 12x12 page size choice, this is actually a 12.25" x 12.25" page. This will work in our Custom Album Covers Designer.
- To add pages that you have designed elsewhere into our Designer, you will upload these pages like you would photos.
- When you choose your theme, choose the Full-Photo Page option. This allows you to add your pre-designed pages to the cover, back and spine.
